DEATH SUMMONS

A Gallant Confederate Soldier at the Age of Almost 86 Years.

The following account of the death of Capt. William Barnett Jones was sent out from Union, S. C., where he spent his last days:

"Capt. William Barnett Jones, who was for many years a well known citizen of Richmond, Ky., and who served in the war between the States with special distinction under Gen. Kirby Smith, is dead here, after an illness of several months at the home of his son, R. A. Jones. Captain Jones came to Union to make this his home on May 2 of last year, which was his 85th birthday, but it was not until about two months ago that he was stricken with an illness, from the effects of which he has gradually declined. Captain Jones was a man of a gentle, retiring disposition and temperate in all his habits. During the war between the States Captain Jones was such a brave and efficient officer that after the surrender, Gen. Kirby Smith is said to have taken him in his arms and said that he was the best officer in his command. Some of his war experiences were very thrilling. On one occasion a woman, the wife of a Federal officer, asked permission of him to pass through the Confederate lines that she might see her husband. Captain Jones gallantly acted as her escort. A day or two after this Captain Jones was captured and tried by court-martial, which was presided over by General Houck, the charges against him being that he was a spy, guerrilla and horse thief. This so aroused Captain Jones' ire that he declared it was a lie. Judge Houck then announced that he would hang him not only for being a spy, but for contempt of court as well. By a strange coincidence a member of the court-martial was the husband of the woman whom Captain Jones had escorted through his lines a few days before. This officer objected to the death sentence, and it was decided to send Captain Jones to Camp Chase. The charges still hanging over him, he was committed to a dungeon, but on demanding better quarters they were given him. In a day or so Judge Breck, a famous Kentucky lawyer, happened to see Captain Jones, whom he knew very well. Judge Breck, on account of his intimacy with President Lincoln, was enabled to obtain the immediate release of Captain Jones. The latter rejoined his command at once, but was soon recaptured with important documents in his possession. However, he escaped by making his guards drunk, for although he did not touch liquor himself, he evidently thought that this was an instance where 'all is fair in love and war.' When only 19 years old Captain Jones on his first visit to the South stopped over in Union. Nineteen years later he married Miss Mary Ruth Allen, whom he saw when she was attending school here at the old Female Academy taught by Mr. and Mrs. Murchison. Miss Allen was from Greenville, Tenn., but had come to school in this city because of the state of affairs in Tennessee on account of the war. He father owned much land and numbered among his friends here the Gist and Jeter families, which were very prominent and extensive. Of this marriage a number of children were born, those living being Dr. M. Ernest Jones, of Los Angeles, Cal.; Mrs. W. R. Potter, wife of the Presbyterian minister of Covington, Tenn.; and V. B. Jr. and R. A. Jones, who are in the mercantile and live stock business in this city. He leaves one brother, James Jones, who is an extensive planter of Fairfield county. Captain Jones was a brother of the dashing Major Joe T. Jones, of Capt. John H. Morgan's command, who, with Morgan, the Rev. E. O. Guerrant, who is widely known as the present head of the Soul Winner's movement; the Rev. Ben Bigstaff, who, in his day, was a celebrated evangelist, and Governor McCree, the present chief executive of Kentucky, were captured by the Federals and confined in prison at Columbus, Ohio, with many other prisoners, but these four, with two others, whose names are not known, by their daring managed to escape on November 27 by digging through feet of solid masonry and only one was recaptured. Captain Jones during his life was a farmer and stock raiser in Kentucky, though he brought his stock in many instances to this State to be marketed. He was an elder in the Presbyterian church for nearly thirty years."

The Real Trouble.

"Oh, doctor," sighed the patient, "I am so glad you have come. I feel dreadful, and I don't know what in the world is the matter with me. My husband says it is but nervous indigestion, but his mother is positive I am going to have appendicitis, and my mother declares I have intermittent fever, and my sister says it looks to her like creeping paralysis, and Aunt Henerietta says I've got malaria. What do you think I've got doctor?" Well, frowns the physician, "from these symptoms I should say offhand that you have too many relatives."

Confederate Reunion.

Macon, Ga., is making great preparations for the coming reunion to be held on May 7, 8 and 9, 1912. Col. Walter A. Harris, who is Colonel of the Georgia Militia, has been selected as general chairman, and is assisted by this corps of busy, business men, who are untiring in their efforts to make this the greatest reunion ever held in Dixie. The Sons of the Confederacy will have a very important and prominent part in the coming reunion, for with Commandant J. Marion Dumody, of the Thomas Hardiman Camp, No. 18, is doing some very active work for the sons in the coming reunion. Mrs. Walter J. Lamar, head of the Georgia United Daughters of the Confederacy, as chairman of the Women's Auxiliary, is untiring in her efforts for the entertainment of the daughters, and those who know Mrs. Lamar is a guarantee that Macon will do her share in showing honors to the daughters. The Confederate Reunion of 1912 will be the greatest ever held in any city in this Southland. Thousands and thousands of dollars are pouring into the treasury of the General Reunion Committee, and every citizen of Macon is doing his share to make it a success. When the Veterans come to this "The Magnetic Center of Dixie," they will be extended a welcome of the kind they will remember until they answer the sound of taps.

True Friendship.

Speaking of friends, some one has aptly said that "our relatives are thrust upon us, but thank God, we can choose our friends." No one with a real friend can be without reason for gratitude to the Giver of such. "A friend is what the heart needs all the time." With passing years, I think most of us come to value true friendship above perhaps everything else. One of the very bitterest of life experiences is to find a trusted supposed friend wanting, when tried in the balances of unexpected circumstances. Again, one of the most blessed experiences is to know whom you can trust. "As the yellow gold is tried in the fire, so the faith of friendship must be seen in adversity." It is the blessed privilege of every one of us to be such a friend, resting assured that if we are we'll never lack one in our own time of need.

Peculiar Disease.

From several sections come reports of death among stock from some peculiar and puzzling disease. It has attacked and killed horses, steers, and, in some instances, hogs. The animals are suddenly seized with great pain, and act as if mad, or, as one man expressed it "gone crazy." The suffering continues for a very short time before death. It is thought that it comes from eating fodder which has become decayed, or poisoned, by long standing in the shock. The financial loss amounts up to large figures.

Oak of the Chicago, Ill., packers in the trial now going on in that city, complained that "Swift infringed on our territory." The disputed territory was in New York and Vermont, and the question naturally arises: How did that territory or any other territory come to be the exclusive property of Swift or anybody else? The answer is simple. Because Swift and the other packers, after driving the butchers in the local communities in New York and Vermont out of business, by underselling them, divided up the territory thus secured and called it their own. Of course, so it was theirs. Having stifled all competitors, both from within and without the district, they were left free to advance prices of meat to suit the dividends desired, and to call the territory "their own."

"Why talk about placing any of the necessities of life on the free list?" is the cry that goes up from the Stand-patters every now and then. "If this were done," they ask, "how could the government raise revenue to meet its expenses?" This is how: By levying an income tax and an inheritance tax, as does every first class nation on the face of the globe, save the United States of America.

About the easiest way for the building and aspiring young statesmen in the Kentucky Legislature to destroy their hopes and blast their ambitions is to vote against any single plank in the Democratic platform when it takes the form of a bill.—Elizabethtown News.

THE Chicago packers, now on trial, are having sent up by press agents a lot of junk attempting to prove that the meat robbers are a blessing to the consumers and producers. It should go into the waste basket with like communications.

THE next National Democratic Convention will be held in Baltimore, Md., and June 25 is the date selected for the great powwow. The National Republican Convention meets in Chicago, Ill., June 18.

Dry Richmond Leads The Procession.

The Climax has had occasion to comment upon the remarkable achievements of several local insurance agents who outstripped all other agents in their respective companies in the matter of business, winning first places for themselves and incidentally placing Richmond first among the cities of Kentucky in the grade of work accomplished.

Again it is our pleasure to note the continued success of our worthy fellow-townsmen, Mr. P. M. Stiver, local manager of the great Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, which has an immense business with the industrial class of people, those who can pay only ten cents per week as a rule to protect their lives and those of their children. A late report on Mr. Stiver's work shows that he ranks first for Kentucky in his company, as well as first among all agents east of the Rocky Mountains. We dismiss Mr. Stiver with our compliments, but we desire to call attention to the fact that he attributes most of his success in collecting his premiums to the fact that Richmond is a dry town, whereas he says in the domain of wet towns in which he has labored, the saloons got the money which should have been paid by the policy-holders upon the lives of themselves and their little ones. One drink costs only ten cents, but that dime also keeps a policy in force for one whole week. Instead of charity begging the poor now, the Metropolitan Co. lays them away and leaves a surplus for the sorrowing ones left behind.

In order to reduce our stock of groceries, we have determined to make a reduction of ten per cent, for cash only, on every article in our mammoth line of groceries. COVINGTON-THORPE CO.

CURIOUS BITS OF HISTORY
A SEVEN DAYS' FISHERMAN KING.

By A. W. MACY.

In 1647, when the kingdom of Naples was under the grinding rule of Spain, a fisherman of Sorrento was wont to make his money by the indignities offered his wife by Spanish officials, because she had attempted to smuggle a few handfuls of flour. So furious was he that he tore down an edict that had just been posted by the authorities. The whole population, including women and children, rallied around him. Forty years of Spanish oppression had made them frantic. They terrified the viceroys, resisted the soldiers successfully, and killed many of the Spanish residents. They secured a revocation of many obnoxious edicts, the abolishment of oppressive taxes, and full pardon for all who engaged in the insurrection. The fisherman, whose name was Masaniello, was the leader in all this, and became the idol of the people. He ruled Naples for seven days, but his success seems to have turned his head. He became dictatorial and oppressive, and was put to death by the papal troops. Hence he is called the Seven Days' King.

Basket Ball at Eastern.

The Eastern Kentucky State Normal School team defeated the local High School in a fast game of basketball Monday night by a score 33 to 16. The teams were evenly matched and at the end of the first half the score was only 10 to 6 in favor of Eastern. In the last half superior coaching and better team work showed and they won by a comfortable margin. Hamm, Simmons and Gumbert were the particular stars. The line up was as follows:

Turley, RF	Collins
Simmons, Capt. LF	Gumbert, Capt.
Dye	Phelps
Maynard, RG	Phelps
Broaddus, LG	Cobb

Death Is No Respector Of Persons.

But a glance at our death column will convince one of the old and oft repeated truth: "Death is no respecter of persons." With a grim sweep of his ghastly hand he hung round the neck of four homes in our city, and claimed alike the young and the old. A tiny five-months old babe, recently dropped like a feather into the lap of motherhood, and innocent of everything, save a mother's fondling and cuddling; an aged great-grandmother, who, by reason of strength, had long since passed her three score and ten years and looked up on life as a tale that was told; a handsome young man, in the very glow of manhood, claiming only a few weeks ago the bride of his youth, with every promise of love and happiness in front of him; the lovely mother, past prime and yet not old—these all were claimed and joined the silent majority. Such an abrupt career to pause and think how great is the sorrow of the world.

Representative Herrington Introduces Important Bills.

Representative I. B. Herrington, of this county, has introduced a number of important bills in the lower House, among which is a bill freezing the State Board of Health from domination by the school of medicine and appointing the Governor free reign in appointing members. Also the following:

Act to define duty of common carriers of freight respecting the speed of cars of live stock.

Act establishing and governing a geological survey of Kentucky and removing present survey and museum from Lexington to Frankfort.

Act to regulate lobbying and conduct of legislators and agents in Kentucky, requiring names of counsel and agents to be entered in a legislative docket and names of their employers. Also requiring that employers at close of session, file with the Secretary of State a sworn statement of the amount paid counsel and agents.

Women's Feet Larger.

Women's feet are bigger than they used to be, and still growing, say shoe manufacturers of America, who held their fifth annual fair in Boston, Mass., not long since. A canvass of opinions among the dealers revealed that the average size of sizes that women wear today is No. 4 to No. 5, whereas twenty years ago the average was from No. 3 to No. 4. The No. 2 size in women's shoes has practically disappeared. Only one in twenty retailers handle them. It is also said that many firms are sending their products out with a code number in place of the actual size number that fitted them. Now, whatever size they ask for, whether it be No. 2, No. 4 or No. 6, the dealer gives them the shoe that fits them, and he alone knows what size they wear.

The Way to Easy Street.

You often hear people talk about opportunity knocking at one's door. In theory it is all right, but lots of times when Opportunity knocks it is only to leave a gold brick. More than one poor devil has jumped up and rushed to the door on hearing the knock and grabbed the brick. Opportunity has all kinds of packages to distribute. Some of them you want to let alone. If you are hustling in the vineyard when Opportunity knocks at your humble door, you won't lose anything. The fellow who lays around all day waiting for Opportunity is the one who gets stung. Waiting for Opportunity is a good deal like taking a milk pail and going out into the pasture and waiting for the old milk cow to back up to you to be milked. Every fellow who has a gold brick to sell masquerades under the guise of Opportunity. They knock and knock, and eventually some sucker comes to the door. There are as many counterfeit Opportunities there as there are honest ones. If you are industrious, honest and fair, you won't have to wait for the knock of Opportunity before you find a guide to show you the way to "Easy Street."

Announces for Re-election.

In the proper column in today's Climax will be found the announcement of Judge W. R. Shackelford for re-election to the office of Judge of the Madison County Court, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Judge Shackelford is serving his first term as County Judge, having been elected to this responsible and important office two years ago. His administration thus far has been one of the best ever administered by any official in this capacity. He has succeeded in putting the county on an excellent financial basis, and has administered the affairs of the county in a most economical manner, and has applied the law to all alike. He has fulfilled every promise made before election and has, indeed, been the judge of his court during his tenure of office. As a result the community has benefited greatly by his wise businesslike measures, and no one can doubt the fact that Judge Shackelford, during his two years in office, has faithfully discharged the difficult duties with patience, industry and talent. He has given to the taxpayers of the county a strictly business administration, and the fiscal affairs are in first-class condition today as a result of his vigilance and business sagacity. Madison county is now a cash basis, paying cash for pike and other work, credit for which must largely be given to this official. Judge Shackelford will appreciate an endorsement of his administration and solicits the influence and support of every Democrat in the county, and promises in the event of his election to continue to give the community with the same ability and zeal that has characterized his present administration.

A SENSATION IS NOW PROMISED
Lively Testimony in Case of State Revenue Agents.

BOTH SIDES SEEM PREPARED

While Those Behind the Legislative Inquiry Declare They Will Be Able to Reveal Amazing Conditions, the Revenue Agents and Their Friends Say They Have Done Nothing to Cause Them to Shrink.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 16.—Investigation of the state revenue agents, which was begun Monday, promises to bring out some of the liveliest testimony that has been heard in Frankfort for a long time. Those behind the investigation claim that they have some sensational testimony, which will disclose amazing conditions. The revenue agents and their friends say that nothing until the bill comes up in either the house or the senate. It was reported that Bill Brown and his friends would try to have the joint Democratic caucus nominate Finley Fogg for prison commissioner, he being a candidate and this being the term at which an election for that office is scheduled to be held.

But the prison commission seems to have given up the fight. They say they have not quit the contest and have merely adopted another plan of action. It is believed that a change in the method of electing the commissioners is certain, and there will not be any effort to prevent some change. Harvey McCutchen, a member of the commission, gave out a statement which indicated to many that he had quit the fight and would accept whatever was done. Mr. McCutchen says he has not quit, that he is standing by his guns and that he meant only what he said in his card. In that card he said he favored the election of the prison commissioners by the people, declaring that this was the method favored by the Democratic platform, which urged that the people be given a chance to say what they wanted.

In the makeup of the committee to which will be referred railroad bills, the railroads operating in Kentucky have given a black eye, as the men who compose the house and senate committees are known to be antagonistic to the railroad, or certainly not favorable to them. Time was when the railroads had committees favorable to them. In one session of the legislature, that of 1908, not a meeting of the railroad committee in either house ever was held during the entire session, and not a single railroad bill was reported.

But it is to be different this year. In the house of the chairman of the railroad committee is Representative Williams, who was a conductor on the C. & O. Railroad and one of the leading members of the trainmen's union. He comes to the legislature pledged to try to establish certain reforms in railroad laws, and will try to have enacted a new employees' liability law which will help those injured in railroad accidents.

Leut. Gov. McDermott, presiding officer of the senate, sprang a new one on the senate last week that has caused more talk than anything that has happened during the present session. He proposed to have the senate adopt a rule providing for the formal testimony of witnesses in the senate, and to have the senate sit in the morning to hear the testimony of witnesses, and to have the senate sit in the afternoon to hear the testimony of witnesses. He suggested that every morning the employees of the senate gather in the private office of the lieutenant governor, and at the hour appointed to call the senate to order, the procession start for the senate chamber. The sergeant at arms was to lead the way, followed by the presiding officer of the senate and with the clerk and assistant clerks following. The sergeant at arms was to announce to the senate:

"The lieutenant governor of Kentucky, the presiding officer of the senate, is about to enter with his retinue. The senators then were to stand with heads bowed while the lieutenant governor entered and took his seat. This plan did not meet with the approval of those senators to whom it was mentioned, and the proposed resolution was not offered in the senate. Gov. McDermott was serious in making the suggestion, but did not mean to convey that he thought he was better than the members of the senate. He merely wanted all the decorum necessary carried out in the senate.

The senate was all stirred up by reason of adoption of a rule to exclude lobbyists from the floor of the senate. The rule was so drastic that everybody was excluded. The way it applied was shown by a conversation which was had between a senator and Finley Fogg, member of the prison commission. The senator complained that more ministers had not attended the senate session to open the proceedings with prayer. Mr. Fogg said:

"The reason they don't attend, is because your old rules are so strict they can not get in."

When two of the state officials were refused admission to the senate floor and the clerk of the house also was denied admission, there was a storm of protest and the senators went to work to amend the stringent rule. Dr. C. F. Crecelius, the Secretary of State, was denied admission when he went to the senate with commissions of notaries public, to have the appointments confirmed by the senate. The rule excluding lobbyists from the floor of the senate still prevails, but the rule has been so modified as to permit state officials and former members of the legislature to enter.

The adoption of the rules in the house was made by the first clash of the administration and anti-administration forces, an outcropping of the race for the speakership. In this fight the speaker was defeated by the man who was his opponent. The following of Harry Schoberth of Woodford county, united with the Republicans to beat the rule in the house requiring two-thirds of those present voting in favor of a change to amend the rules or suspend the order of business. Mr. Schoberth opposed the two-thirds rule wanting it left so that a majority could change the order as between the men classed as strictly administration and the known as independents.

Kentucky is to have a new mansion for the governor if a bill offered by Representative Hamilton, of Frankfort county, is passed. The bill, one of the first introduced, appropriates $75,000 for the erection of a mansion and specifies that the mansion shall be located on the ground adjoining the capitol.

Drafted Bank Examiners' Bill.

Judge J. A. Sullivan, of Richmond, who is regarded as one of the closest men to Gov. McCreary, is spending a few days in Frankfort. Judge Sullivan is the author of the bill providing for a State Department of Banking with a commissioner, deputy commissioner and three examiners. This measure, which will be backed by the administration, is ready to be introduced in both branches of the General Assembly and will be pushed to passage. The bill has bipartisan features and is endorsed by the financial institutions that operate under State charters.—Louisville Times.

FEEDING For Production of Eggs

This is one very essential point, which you should never miss in your egg raising. Hens cannot lay unless they are supplied with the material from which eggs are made. A hen is only a machine for making eggs out of the material which she finds in her feed, unless she is given the proper TONIC regularly, along with her feed, she cannot manufacture EGGS.

Marriage License.

During the year 1911, there were issued from the County Clerk's office 195 marriage licenses to white people, and 69 colored. County Clerk Terrill reports that some ministers are careless in making proper returns of license, however all have been returned for last year with the exception of five. It is important that the license be returned for record.

Accepts Call to Knoxville.

It will be interesting to many friends here to know that Rev. Herbert Smith has accepted a call to the First Presbyterian church of Knoxville, Tennessee. Mr. Smith is a son of Rev. J. Addison Smith, formerly of this city and since graduating from Princeton has filled the pulpit of a big church in Rochester, N. Y. He has been heard here several times. Besides being a most entertaining speaker he is an organist of ability and has many friends here who extend best wishes.

Cheer Up.

It's a good old world yet, fellows, and there's lots and lots of luck. There's about a million chances for a lad who has the pluck. Don't sit down and curse your fortune and be gobbled by the bloomers, while the hustlers rush on past you with a hundred thousand sand dollars. Don't give up and say it's useless for a fellow nowadays to secure a wad of money or land anything that pays. For the old world hates a quitter, and it boomerangs a gronch; and the Lord, He hates a knocker, and Dame Fortune hates a slouch. Pay a nickel for a lucky bloom, don't a four-teen-cent grin, renovate your hands and use them, and we'll bet that you win.

The Harrodsburg Republican has changed its name to the Harrodsburg Leader. The Republican was formerly the Democrat, and was owned and edited by Lew R. Brown. Mr. Orr has a splendid paper, and all that is now needed is to change its politics. Success to the Leader is the wish of this CLIMAX.

Deepest Snow in Years.

Buys Farm.

The 205 acre farm of the late T. P. Walker, that was offered at public sale last court day, and taken down because a sufficient price was not obtained, was sold privately to Coy Brothers, of Kirksville, for $82.50 per acre. The tract lies in the East Lancaster suburbs, and is a very desirable parcel of land—Lancaster Record. Coy Bros., referred to above, are Messrs. Mac and Noy Coy, two of Madison's most progressive farmers.

Make up your mind now that you are going to vote for R. B. Terrill for re-election. His record as a public servant has never been eclipsed by any former official.

Excellent Report.

Elsewhere in this issue of the Climax will be found the annual report of the city of Richmond. Every taxpayer in the city should read this statement, which is one of the best, if not the very best, reports ever published in Richmond. The report shows a balance of $14,990.18 in the treasury, divided as follows: Balance in general fund, $8,482.63; in sinking fund, $6,507.55, making a total of $14,990.18. The Mayor and City Council should be proud of this excellent report which reflects credit on all the officials of the city administration.

False Arrest Due To Odd Tangle.

The following from the Frankfort News-Journal will be of interest here, where the parties involved live: "By reason of an odd combination of circumstances, Tobe Munday was indicted in Madison county on a charge of obtaining money by false pretenses. He was promptly acquitted, when the prosecuting attorney was informed as to the real facts. Munday then sued A. L. Gott and Creed Gott, charging false prosecution, but the Court of Appeals says that the lower court did not err in dismissing the petition. Munday owed Gott Brothers $18 and paid them with a check. When the Gotts deposited the check, they did not endorse it, and it reached the bank in Lexington on which it was drawn without the endorsement. That bank refused to pay the check because of the failure to endorse, but the check was returned to the Madison county bank, marked 'No Funds.' Munday then was indicted; but it was shown that there was a mistake. The court here says that the Gott Brothers were not the proximate cause of the indictment against Munday.

The market is much stronger on all tobacco.

It has long been a Democratic custom in Madison county to give a second term to those officials who perform their duty during the first term of office, and who can make no mistake by deciding to cast your vote for R. B. Terrill for re-election to the office of County Clerk. His record is open for the closest inspection.

Deaths.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Stone Maupin extend to them their hearty sympathy in the loss of their beautiful little daughter, Mayme, who died Monday morning after a short illness of pneumonia. Though the little one was but five months old it was the idol of its fond parents, and the taking away of this little bud to blossom in another world, is, indeed, a crushing blow to those who loved it most. Interment took place yesterday in Richmond Cemetery.

Although expected, the death of Mrs. Dudley Tribble on Sunday morning came as a shock to her wide circle of friends. Deceased had been in declining health for many months, but bore her illness with Christian fortitude. Mrs. Tribble was 60 years of age, and before her marriage was a Miss Weather, of Lexington. She was a member of the Baptist church, and was a woman of high ideals and lovely Christian character. Her death is particularly sad in that it follows so close to that of her husband only a few weeks ago, and at the old Gentry homestead where she was born. The daughters are Misses Tillie and Bessie Tribble and Mrs. James J. Neale. Funeral services were conducted yesterday afternoon at the home on West Main street by Rev. E. B. Barnes, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Richmond cemetery.

After months of suffering from a complication of diseases, James H. Gentry died at his home Monday morning, on the Outer Creek pike, aged forty-one years. Death came to this well known citizen in the same room of his birth and at the old Gentry homestead where he had spent a life time. He was a son of Mr. Jos. K. Gentry, of this city, and his death is the first to occur in a family of nine children. He was married twenty years ago to Miss Ida Hise, daughter of Mr. John Hise, of this county. No children ever resulted from this union, and the wife, who died at the age of 35, was his only child. Besides a husband, three step children which he will regret to learn of her death. Funeral was preached Monday at College Hill by Rev. Gilbert, followed by interment in the College Hill graveyard. Besides a husband, three step children survive. They are: Mrs. Wm. Martin, of this city, and Messrs. George and James Lewis, of Clark county.

Mrs. Polly Keene died suddenly Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Lalor, on Orange street, at the ripe old age of eighty-seven years. Mrs. Keene ate a hearty supper and retired early as was her custom. She had been in her room only a few moments when Mrs. Lalor heard a faint groan and going to the bedside of the aged woman found life extinct, death evidently being due to old age. Deceased is survived by three daughters, who are: Mrs. Emily Whicker, Mrs. Lizzie Hopper and Mrs. Susie King, all of this city. After funeral services at the grave yesterday afternoon, the remains were laid to rest in Richmond Cemetery.

Superintendent Noland Announces for Police Judge.

Elsewhere in the Climax appears the announcement of Superintendent John Noland for the office of Police Judge of the city of Richmond, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Supt. Noland needs no introduction to the voters of Richmond, since he has spent his entire life among our people, is now serving a second term as Superintendent of Public Schools of Madison county, a position he has filled acceptably to all concerned. Madison has never had at the head of her school's a more conscientious, painstaking official than Superintendent Noland has proven himself to be, and he retires from that office with the plaudits of those who are familiar with the great work he has accomplished during his two administrations. He now appeals to the voters of Richmond and solicits their support and influence for the office of Police Judge. He is a member of Richmond bar and thoroughly qualified to take care of every duty involved in connection with the office. If elected he pledges the same fidelity to duty that has characterized his administration as County Superintendent.

The Reason of This Big Sale

Never before in the history of our store, have we been so well prepared to furnish the needs of the people of Richmond and Madison county as we are now. The Truth of the Matter

The man who writes advertisements for clothing is often apt to tell a lie without intending to do so. Fact is we would rather tell the truth all the time, but the habit of talking about 30 DOLLAR SUIT for TEN and describing CHEAP CLOTHES as the finest ever, when every one knows they are not, grows upon one till the polite lie slips away from the pen and are printed, too, almost before a person knows it. So when you find us saying (as you do in this circular) that our entire stock of fall and winter clothing will be sold during this OUR GREATEST LOOM END SALE at half price, or as nearly half price as possible, don't think we are LYING. Believe us, we are telling you the plain truth. Our clothes are good, durable, well made and full of style. The name on our clothes, the makers name "Schloss Bros." is your guarantee of quality

WE feel that our buyers have covered themselves with glory in their campaign against competition for good merchandise at low prices for this, our crowning event, in sales-giving. Not a single market, not a single mill or factory that had merchandise to offer at a price far below the cost of manufacture that was not visited by our buyers. They were like blood hounds on the trail and every thing that would add to our already big stock of seasonable goods and gladden the hearts of our customers was gobbled up by them for cash down when goods were boxed up. We've got them for you this time. You can come expecting to buy goods at the lowest prices ever quoted you for the best brands and latest styles in all kinds of merchandise. Not only do we offer you LOOM ENDS of every conceivable kind, but we offer in addition our entire stock in every department at Loom End Prices. You know when we make this assertion we mean it. You have either attended our sales or heard of them. Make no mistake. Everything will be just as advertised in price and quality. Come and get your share. Read every price quotation we name, we can't name but a few as space won't allow. But visit us during this big sale and see the price tags in every department telling you how to save money on every purchase. Notify your neighbors to meet you at our big store
